

JUNE/JULY, 1996
VOLUME 12, NO. 6

AN EVENING WITH CATHERINE GOGGIA

SACWN will present "An Evening with Catherine Goggia" on Friday, June 21, 1996 at the SACWN office 3031 F Street, Suite 201 in Sacramento from 6:30 p.m. Goggia, an artist, author and cartoonist from Chico will sign her new book and talk about the life of a lesbian artist and graphic designer.

Something for Everybody is a book which lives up to its title. Goggia calls it "Sarcastic Self-Help Via Cartoons". "I've done some counseling work with children through my art and was a motivational instructor for three years. Those experiences taught me that we all are doing the same thing: we get up each day and do our best. We all have aspects of ourselves that need some work. Sometimes that process is funny and sometimes it is heartbreaking! I enjoy studying human behaviors, exposing the humor in them and calling our bluff when we pretend not to know the truth. Discovering the truth (even if it is for only that split second) is what much of my work is about. For me personally, coming out has been a truth-accessing compass."

Wine, sodas and hors d'oeuvres will be served.

Date:	Friday, June 21, 1996
Place:	SACWN Office
	3031 F Street, Suite 201, Sacto.

An event for women over 21 only.

From the Steering Committee

Here we are in the almost middle of the year. How did that happen? This is our June/July midyear issue of the newsletter. There was a time when we didn't have our wonderful July event, the Sacramento Women's Gathering, and so no newsletter was published in July. Now the July event takes so much work, we still don't publish a newsletter in July! If you've never attended our camping weekend, do consider it this year. It is a retreat, an outing, a gathering, a play time, a gift you can give yourself. There will be workshop/discussions under the tall pines, a Saturday night dance and the stars peeking through your "open to the sky" cabin at night.

Have you logged onto our chat room yet? It will be up and running on June 1st. Do come and talk. We understand that those of you who have service with America On-line may have to wait until your browser is updated next month, before you can chat without problems. To our knowledge all other browsers can access the room. Remember, if this is Greek to you, we are here to help. Call the cybersig women for assistance.

Speaking of our chat room and home page, a very special thanks to our first advertiser to "sign on as a sponsor of our cyberspace antics". That honor goes to Whitney and Killick Financial Services. Our sincere appreciation for being our first cybersponsor!

As you will read elsewhere in this newsletter, SACWN has been experiencing a significant drop off in attendance at our recent events. We need to understand better what and why this is happening. Until then, we will be adding a new mix to our monthly schedule, The SACWN Salon.

In the (almost) tradition of our foremother, Gertrude Stein, we will plan occasional small intimate gatherings featuring artists of our culture who will entertain (so to speak) us with their witty conversations and observations. Seriously, Gertude and Alice were famous for opening their Paris home (the salon room) every Sunday evening to friends to meet the artists they "sponsored" and mentored. If you were on the "in list" (and for us every SACWN subscriber is!), you wouldn't miss the opportunity to schmooze! Well, the SACWN office is not the left bank, but it is just to the left of McKinley Park (where on a warm night we might spill over if need be!). Yes, this is our version of downsizing, but also we hope that the gatherings will offer an opportunity to get to know each other in a more personal way. Come join us and give it a try!

Getting to know each other is what SACWN is all about and we have two new Special Interest Groups starting this month that will help us do that! A special thanks to Debbie D. who will be facilitating the Newcomer's Group and to Cinder and Lesha who are starting a Four Wheeling SIG. I'm told this means four wheels on a truck! Such wild women!

Have a very happy summer solstice and treasure every day!

Special Interest Groups - June

Special Interest Groups, fondly called SIGs, provide a way for our subscribers to meet in a more personal setting and get to know each other while exploring a common interest. For activities in July call the facilitators listed below.

SINGLE CONNECTION

Those of us at the Single Connection table at the Spring Hop sure had a wonderful time dancing to Jammin Jo's music. It was great to meet new people. Welcome to the newcomers.

For all of you singles out there that we haven't met yet, the SACWN booth at the Lambda Fair on June 8th will have a sign-up sheet for the Single Connection. Please sign it so we can get in touch with you and welcome you to our group.

On Wednesday, June 12th at 7:30 p.m., we are going to go bowling. Call Eileen at 422-8180 for location.

And next on Monday June 17th at 7:30 p.m. we'll have a planning meeting. What are your interests? Please come and share. Call Eileen at 422-8180 for location.

Renee is hosting miniature golf at 7:30 p.m. on June 20th. Again call Eileen for location.

On Sunday, June 23, we will have a celebration of the feminine summer solstice. It will be at 2 p.m. in a shaded place by water. We'll have a munchie potluck, reading, masks and dancing. Call Gail at 451-8152. Note: Kids will be welcome and in attendance. For general info call Eileen at 422-8180.

WILDLIFE, BIRDWATCHING AND PHOTOGRAPHY HIKES

Call Linda at 921-9052 to find out about the upcoming activities.

TOP 10

Dinner on June 7 at Wah Shine Chinese Restaurant, 7433A Greenback (at San Juan) 6:30 p.m. Call Toni for reservations 446-3224 by June 5th.

The June meeting will be held at Toni's. It will be a cold buffet with beverage provided from 11 to 3. Toni and Karen J are the hostesses. Free software from Internet will also be on the menu. Videos are available for those not interested in computers. Call Toni and Karen at 446-3224 to RSVP and for location.

We are still looking for a facilitator and sharing responsibilities until we find her!

RAINBOW CAMPERS

Here's the schedule for a summer of camping fun. Call Casey for information and coordination at 366-7362. Reservations are needed NOW!

July 19-21 - Camp Augusta
July 26-27 - Nevada Beach, Tahoe
August 9-10 - Wright's Beach
Sept 20-21 - Coloma
October - Barbecue and planning party for next year. Details TBA.

All campers are welcome with tents, trucks, RV's, mattresses, etc.

FOUR WHEELERS

Have a four wheel drive? Wanta give it some action? Well join us for an exciting day exploring the beautiful foothills. Bring a picnic lunch, your babe and blankets on Saturday, June 15th. Call Cinder at 676-0641 or Julie at 361-9422 for info.

CYBER SIG

We go on line on June 1, at 10:00 a.m. with our SACWN CHAT ROOM debut! Join us on the Internet!

Our SACWN web page will tell you the latest SACWN news and tell you how to get to the Chat Room. Visit us at <http://www.cwo.com/~sacwn> and see for yourself. Next meeting for the cyber sig is June 29 at 10:30 a.m.

Call Anna at 739-6366 to RSVP. Anna can also be reached by leaving a message on her e-mail at afong@csus.edu. SACWN's e-mail address is sacwn@cwo.com.

COUPLES GROUP

Everyone is invited to the Third Annual Potluck Picnic, hosted by the Couples Group and open to all SIGS! Sunday, June 22nd 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Negro Bar at Folsom Lake. Bring something to BBQ and a potluck dish to share. Bathing suits, folding chairs, frisbees, dogs and volleyballs optional

Call Diana and Julie at 361-9422 to RSVP and for directions.

MOMS AND KIDS

We meet the third Saturday of the month. For location and time call Paula at 725-9094 (days) or Kim 364-8653 for information.

NEWCOMERS

We have a welcome brunch on the last Sunday of the month. Join us if you are new to the area, new to SACWN or just new. All members and facilitators are invited to attend. RSVP to Debbie at 209/369-0411 for location and time.

SACWN DATES FOR 1996

IN THE COMMUNITY

Friday, June 21, 1996 An Evening with Author and Artist Catherine Goggia

You've seen her work in SACWN for the past year. Cartoonist Catherine Goggia from Chico will join us to sign her new book and tell us about the life of an artist and graphic designer. Her book is a very special treat that she will share with us. Here's what others have said about Something for Everybody:

"Many authors talk up here, over my head. You talk to me right here, at my heart."

"I appreciate your ability to communicate honestly about issues that can sometimes be very delicate."

"The book is easily enjoyed a page at a time. However, the stream of consciousness throughout is surprising and powerful."

"This book gave my partner and I an opportunity to talk about some issues that we didn't know how to bring up. We laughed alot as we went through it and we talked alot. It was a funny way to spare our anniversary."

Come join us to talk with Catherine about her art and life.

July 19-21, 1996 The Fourth Annual Sacramento Women's Gathering

From the late afternoon of Friday, until Sunday afternoon, we will share a camping weekend in the tall pine trees of Camp Augusta, just north of Nevada City. The campground offers swimming, canoeing, hiking and an incredible private 40 foot waterfall fed by the melting snow of the Sierras. There will be workshops, discussion groups, evening fire circle and a Saturday night dance.

It's a weekend at camp, SACWN style in open air cabins with hot showers and great food. But most of all it's a weekend to meet new people and to build friendships.

Look for registration information on page 8.

More SACWN Dates:

August 16 - Game Night

September 20 - Absolutely Fabulous Night

June 1, 1996

CAP/PAC Dinner to be held at the Sacramento Convention Center. Tickets are $85. Call Cathi Meyers at 631-7171 for reservations.

Building Lasting Relationships

Couple's group emphasizing solutions and growth in establishing committed long-term relationships. Meets 2xs per month. Facilitator: Melinda Facelli MFCC #MFC30351 - 783-0563

Our June SACWNite, Deborah Brooks was born in Cambridge, New York, near Albany. "I was raised in a small agricultural area and got a good education, thanks to the New York educational system. With only 65 students in my graduating class, I had the chance to be involved in school activities and develop leadership skills at an early age."

Debbie went on to Cornell University in Ithaca, studying animal physiology as a step to medical school. "After I got my BA, I realized how hard it would be for a women to get through med school. I would have had to give up everything else. Plus on my first day at Cornel, on the way to the campus from the airport, I met someone and fell in love."

Debbie graduated, married and became a Navy wife. Family obligations brought them to California and she lived the role of a housewife in the foothills, volunteering with the United Way and the League of Women Voters. She started and ran a recycling organization until the local solid waste company took it over.

Then came a divorce during the building of their home, an unfinished house which Debbie got in the settlement. Having to support herself, she worked first in a vitamin store and then started working as a paralegal at the Legal Center for the Elderly. She learned to draft wills, provide representation at Social Security hearings and advocate for consumer rights.

After a couple of years, Debbie and a co-worker founded the Community Law Center, a nonprofit legal clinic that provided low cost divorces and bankruptcies. "I worked a lot with women from the battered women's shelter and for a while considered a law career. But I realized that I couldn't stay emotionally uninvolved with my clients. I came to understand that I wasn't cut out for law."

Knowing that math was always her best subject in school, Debbie got a job as a bookkeeper. "That's when it all clicked. I took classes at Yuba College, then CSUS and within 3 semesters I sat for the CPA exam and passed. After working the required two years with a local firm to get auditing experience, I obtained my CPA certificate and started my own business."

At first Debbie worked out of her home, then in 1991 she bought an accounting practice in Browns Valley. She specializes in tax preparation and planning and accounting for individuals, small businesses and non-profit organizations.

Debbie came out slowly over the years. "I was always more comfortable with women. I knew I was emotionally attracted to them, but small towns can limit your perspective. I had a lot of friends at the shelter who were lesbian and shared a house with a lesbian couple while at CSUS. I hung out with them, and several lovely experiences later, I knew I was a lesbian. I started going to SACWN events back when they were held at the YWCA."

"Women in the country tend to be strong, so you can't make assumptions as easily. After the divorce, I had "women friend building parties" at the house and met country dykes who contributed their skills to completing my home. But it is hard to find other lesbians in the country."

Debbie shares her home with her two cats, Stash and Willie. She likes hiking, camping, and music. "I play the piano and I like to sing and dance. My favorite is clogging. It's good exercise, great music and makes you feel good."

Debbie has been single for a while, not yet meeting that one special person. When probed she admitted that that person will be "socially and environmentally aware, able to live in the country and she will probably be a vegetarian. I could make many compromises, but living in the city or suburbs is not one of them."

"I'm not sure what the future holds. I have a wonderful geodesic dome house, but the roof does leak. I love the area, but they are building a golf course nearby.. I've thought of having another CPA in the practice but she's have to be a special woman..."

What is success to Debbie? "I'm not sure I've gotten to success yet. I'm not motivated by money or material goods. I enjoy what I do despite the pressures of tax season. I'd like to work nine months of the year and be able to travel. I'd go to Africa and the Himalayas. I'd visit the mountain gorillas in Africa studied by Diane Fossey. That would feel very successful!"

Letter to the Editor

I attended the dance last Saturday night. Unfortunately, I was one of the few who did. And I don't understand it. The facility was terrific - just like Sandy described it - it was clean, it was large, the dance floor was great, the whole place had been remodeled, including the bathrooms, and it was SAFE! The music was wonderful, as Jo never fails to please. There were two security guards to look out for us; and in fact, one of them specifically waited for me to leave to escort me to my car since mine was the last car in the parking lot across the street.

The comments I heard from other people were that maybe the address put people off. It didn't put me off because I'm lucky enough to live in South Natomas and I've seen the reconstruction of this part of Del Paso Boulevard. With the Enotria Wine Bar Cafe (the newest four star restaurant in town), all the new art galleries, the antique shops and continuing renovation of the area's Art Deco buildings, this part of town is undergoing a major transformation. The Musician's Hall is only a short half dozen blocks east of Arden Way. And with the security we had it was perfectly safe. I certainly felt much safer here with security and a parking lot on the premises, than in a downtown spot with the only parking on a street or in a lot two blocks away!

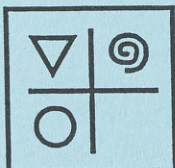

I would encourage everyone to give the Musician's Hall a chance - you won't be sorry. And call Sandy and tell her so or we won't get another opportunity. While you are at it, thank her for coming up with such a great place. She keeps on searching for the perfect place for us and this time she came pretty darn close.

SACRAMENTO WOMEN'S GATHERING

SACWN has rented Camp Augusta for your week-end enjoyment. The campground includes a lake for swimming and canoeing. A quarter mile hike will take you to the base of a private waterfall. Sixteen open sided cabins will sleep four to six persons each. Each group of four cabins has a shower house with shower cubicles and hot water. Five meals will be prepared and served. Utensils will be provided. Each person is asked to take a shift in the kitchen.

Several workshops are planned for under the tall pine trees. Confirmed is Jeanette Hess, who will lead the music workshop, Come Blow Your Horn. Bring any kind of musical instrument to join in. Dr. Joanne Morrow will be back for the second part of her workshop, Let's Talk About Hot Sex! Denice DeRicco will lead a discussion on Embracing Change in Our Life. There will be a Learn How to Hula time and Sandy Virago will facilitate a discussion on Lesbian Community. There will be a campfire and entertainment on Friday night and a dance on Saturday night.

The gathering begins on Friday at 4:00 p.m. when we can arrive on the land, Opening circle will be held at 6:30 p.m. followed by dinner and entertainment. Enjoy the workshops on Saturday and Sunday, swim, canoe, and play volleyball. Take time to be alone or join in with others.

The closing circle will be held at noon on Sunday. Here are a few of the comments at last year's closing circle:

"The dynamics were great, people reached out and made friends.

There was freedom to be me!

I liked no waiting for bathroom space.

Diversity was an important part for me.

Compassion was alive here.

The setting is so great, such women energy.

Join us for the SACWN Fourth Annual Sacramento Women's Gathering. Have questions? Call Sandy at 451-8034.
